What do you remember ABOUT LATIN?

Well, BLS JCL remembers a lot - and then some!

The Boston Latin School Junior Classical League is a youth group of high school students that appreciates and studies classical civilization.

BLS JCL strives to spread awareness about the classics; achieve excellence in academics and athletics; and aid our community through tireless volunteer work. As a local chapter, we're part of the Massachusetts JCL (MassJCL) and National JCL (NJCL).

Four JCLers pose with an ESWA worker. We volunteered this Halloween by asking for food with the ESWA, which helps low-income workers and their families survive.

A set of BLS JCL twins prepare for the Chariot Race at last year's State Convention! Psst: we won!

BLS JCLers speak:

"JCL really enriched my Latin experience in BLS, and I got to learn the backdrop behind the language. " - Linda, freshman

"Through JCL, I've been able to meet so many interesting people from around the country—a truly enlightening experience." - Henry, junior

"Best times with the best people."

"JCL is such an exciting organization that celebrates the Classics through various events, services, and competitions. I am absolutely thrilled for another Latin-packed year!" - Clare, freshman "Think nerdiness meets awesomeness. That's basically what JCL is, and I can honestly say that this club has changed me."

- Connie, sophomore

How YOU can help:

Donate to BLS JCL! We're an almost completely student-run organization, and we're always in need of financial backing from donors like YOU who can make a tremendous difference in our club. Donations go toward funding our trips to States and Nationals. By donating, you are also showing your support for the classics and education. Head Master

Happy Thanksgiving to the members of the Boston Latin School and English High School communities!

November is a favorite time of year when we welcome home family and friends to give thanks for the opportunities life has afforded us. One of our historic Thanksgiving traditions is the Latin vs. English football game, now in its 126th year. A wonderful day of reunion, when we gather at Harvard Stadium to celebrate the oldest continuous high school rivalry in the United States!

I extend warm Thanksgiving wishes to Head Master Ligia Noriega and the entire English High School community as we continue this historic rivalry with today's athletic contest. Our tradition brings out the best in both schools, and we look forward to a game played with good sportsmanship and spirit!

I would like to give thanks to the faculty, students, coaches, families and alumni who support our great tradition celebrated here today. We showcase the football team, the cheerleading squad, the step squad and the football band – all made up of students who commit their time and energy to wearing the Purple and White with a great deal of school pride!

Go Wolfpack! Happy Thanksgiving!

LATIN FIGHT SONG

On the Field of Many Colors
Latin's banners fly
Cheer on,
  cheer like volley thunder
Echoes to the sky
See the Latin team advancing
Gaining more and more
So we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
Dear Old Latin evermore.

HEADMASTER LETTER 2012

Hurray! Finally The 126th Thanksgiving historical game between the two oldest schools is here The English High School (founded in 1821) and Boston Latin School (April 23, 1635). Sometimes we participate in events without having a deep understanding of the history behind it. Our players, cheerleaders and coaches' names, pictures, and scores will be part of our archived records that one day others will be able to look back and to be distant participants of great accomplishments.

For me, it is an honor to be the first female Head Master of The English High School to address two of the oldest amazing sportsmanship teams who carry on their shoulders 126 years of history and who, winning or not will make each school proud of all their efforts on the field.

Our English High School student-athletes have marked this Thanksgiving game in their calendars as well as the entire The English High School students, faculty, staff, parents, and alumni. We will be there on Thanksgiving Day supporting our football players. Our Drum-Line will be making a lot of noise carrying our best wishes for a healthy Blue and Blue victory.

Go Bulldogs!!!

Sincerely,

Ligia B. Noriega-Murphy
Headmaster
